Tammy:

I just wanted to let you know that I am putting together the responses to your non-RM SOW questions below.
I was out of the office from May 21st to May 28th, so I am playing catch-up, but I have not forgotten about you.

Jennifer

Subject: Additional Ocwen Claim Questions

Bryan,

As discussed this morning and in the interest of getting started on some of the other claims put forward by Ocwen, please provide background summaries\supporting documents for the following:

- Montgomery County Litigation – what breach of APA obligation of Sellers is being alleged by Ocwen here?
- Kasork.com service fees – what breach of APA obligation is being alleged?
- NJ NOI order to show cause – when was the order entered?
- Secure Axxess claim – provide any color your IT team has in respect of the technology in question, how long it was used past the closing date, etc.
- REO code violations – what breach of APA obligation is being alleged?
- People of CA v. DB National Trust Co – when was settlement agreed and by whom? Has Ocwen been required to indemnify DB? If so, has Ocwen sought reimbursement from the relevant trusts?
- Trustee Reimbursement Claim – please provide some specifics as to this matter. No description is given in the Admin Claim and the alleged amount is $1,924,331.98
- King v. Bank of NY Mellon – please provide specifics of this matter
- Servicing Advances – please provide the underlying loan-level detail for this claim and on what specific basis Ocwen alleges a breach of Section 4.9 of the APA
- SAS claims –what breach of APA obligation is being alleged here?

Please note that my failure to ask a question about a particular claim does not mean ResCap believes that claim to have any validity under the documents.

Best,
Tammy
